Board of Directors Interest Form

Mid Shore Behavioral Health, Inc. (MSBH) is a private, not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization serving Caroline, Dorchester, Kent, Queen Anne’s, and Talbot Counties. Our primary responsibility as a “Core Service Agency” is community planning, management, and monitoring of publicly funded and medically necessary behavioral health services in the five-county region.

With the ongoing goal of a diverse and engaged Board of Directors, we are currently accepting interest forms from individuals in a variety of community sectors, including but not limited to multicultural, business/finance, faith affiliated, law enforcement, health care, housing development/homeless services. Responsibilities include attending monthly meetings (typically the second Monday of the month, at 4:30 PM), participating in steering the organization in accordance with the mission and vision, voting on pertinent issues, and actively participating in a Board committee. Directors are appointed for a four-year volunteer term.

If you have an interest in the process of advancing our mission, please complete this form and email to kmoran@midshorebehavioralhealth.org. Alternatively, the form can be mailed to Mid Shore Behavioral Health, Inc., 28578 Mary’s Ct, Suite 1, Easton, MD 21601, Attn: K. Moran.
